HIGHLIGHTS OF CURRENT EVENTS

By Bill Dennis

Allen Torlakson, social science major, and guest columnist this week, launches "Highlights of Current Events" for the Spring semester with this timely question, "Why a Marshall Plan?"

So long as there are independent states acknowledging no political superior, so long shall there be war. Nationalism is not compatible with peace. Peace is the heartfelt desire of us all, and if we recognize the contradiction in the concept of peaceful independent states we must strive for world government. World government can be attained by only two means—co-operation or subjugation.

We alone of all the nations on the earth possess the power to use the second means, and the opportunity will be lost when we no longer have a monopoly of the secrets of nuclear fission. In any event, it is inconceivable that the American people would ever contemplate this course.

UNDERSTANDING NEEDED

This leaves but one alternative—co-operation. If we do not have an understanding between the powers of the world, we will not have a lasting peace. Today this understanding and co-operation seem almost impossible of attainment.

Our immediate danger is the time element. Without a breathing spell of peace and security, we cannot hope to achieve our ends. The present two-power balance of power is too unstable to give us that security which would enable us to work toward a world political authority. We must work within the reality of power politics.

The present balance of power is too simple to operate peacefully for any length of time. If there were a third power, a united Europe, forced to strive for peace because of its location between the two present powers, and because of its own strength able to hold the balance of power, then we might gain the time to formulate a world government.

NO PEACE GUARANTEE

This is not to say that a balance of power system is in itself a means toward peace. It has never been so in the past, and there is no indication that it would be so now.

A rehabilitation of the economy of Europe would make possible the creation of a third power center which could give us the needed time. This rehabilitation would mean tremendous expenditure, and it would mean co-operating with nations some of whose ideologies are contradictory to our own. We made vastly greater material contributions and at the same time co-operated with foreign ideologies in winning the last war. Cannot we do so to win a peace? Certainly there is no greater cause.

If we undertake the Marshall Plan, we must realize that there is no assurance of its success. There is no probability that a revitalized Europe would mean world co-operation. It is only a remote possibility, but it is a possibility. Not to make the attempt is to resign ourselves to a third world war.

Smoke, Smoke, Smoke That ? ? Cigarette

Nicotine fiends may find their addiction to their advantage this week with a "name brand" cigarette company conducting an advertising campaign on campus. Persons found smoking the brand with the alphabet-wise slogan by the company representative will receive two free packages. Those found carrying a package will be given a complimentary one.

Vance Announces Two-Day Program For Registration

Two days have been set aside this week for payment of fees and formal registration, according to Florence Vance, registrar. Students registered at the college last semester should complete there requirements Friday. New students and re-entrants register today.

Procedures for NON-VETS are as follows:

1. Report to Room 207, Anderson Hall, located at the corner of Haight and Buchanan Streets. There, registration books will be distributed to be filled out. Fall '47 grades will be issued to those students whose requirements are cleared. Delinquent students may get their grades at the Anderson Hall exit on the way to the gym.

Proceed to the gym to pay fees and pick up class cards.

3. New students go to Hut 1, where an identification picture will be taken. The student body will provide a photographer for 31 cents each person.

Those VETERANS under Public Laws 346, 16 and the State bill proceed as follows:

1. Report to Room 207, Anderson Hall, to fill out registration booklets.

2. New students pick up forms 7-52 in Room 125, Anderson Hall.

3. Turn in forms 7-52, complete with "C" (claims) number at Hut 2. There class cards and clearance will be given. This takes the place of paying fees. Vets under P. L. 16, authorized by the Veterans' Administration to attend school, will be cleared by the VA training officer, William I. Olsen.

Veterans who have been in school previously and who have not attended any other institution under the G. I. Bill since they last interrupted training here at State will complete form 7-52.

Those who have attended another school under the G. I. Bill will need supplemental letters of eligibility besides a completed form 7-52. Those who have applied for supplementals which have not yet been received must pay their own bills. Their money will be refunded when the letters of eligibility are received by the college.

Vets who never have attended school under the G. I. Bill will need a letter of eligibility, which will be kept on file at the VA.

Forms 7-52 will not be accepted unless the "C" (claims) number is complete.

Vets who have paid their own school bills before will need letters of eligibility if they wish to accept the benefits of the G. I. Bill.

Students classified under a state compensation bill may see the state representative Friday in Hut 3. Mr. Olsen will be available Wednesday and Friday in Hut 3.

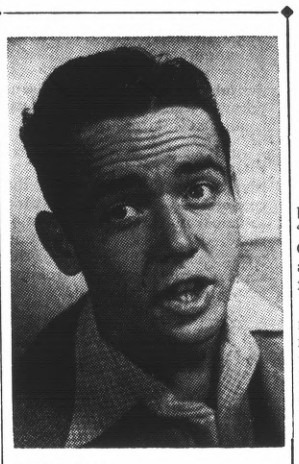
Registration Hours

Registration hours for today and Friday are:

A-C, 9-10; D-G, 10-10:30; H-K, 10:30-11:30; L-N, 12:30-1:30; O-S, 1:30-2:30; T-Z, 2:30-3.

Governor Lists Budget; College Gets $1,475,000

San Francisco State College would receive $1,475,000 from Governor Earl Warren's $10,071,340 budget allotted State Colleges, it was announced in Sacramento Monday. This would be $258,000 less than last year, because of construction funds appropriated at that time.



O'LEARY:

'Gator Government Represents Pupils'

Student body government at State represents the students. Their desires and purposes are the first consideration of the organization. The Associated Students of San Francisco State College was incorporated with the aim of establishing a voice of the students in every sphere of student activities. A prime purpose is to make it possible for the student to make his views known. Formed, therefore, as a voice of the students, it only can function as its voice if the students take an active part in it.

Your student body government recognizes its responsibility to see that you have an adequate and happy college experience. This only can be accomplished if the students actively participate in its fulfillment.

One of the basic policies of the student government will be an attempt to not only stimulate activities within and outside the student body itself, but also to recognize the needs and the rights of all State students in their college life.

This is your government. You can support and strengthen it.

VIN O'LEARY,
Student Body President.

What's to Do? Where's to Go?

Among the thousand and one other activities planned for Spring, 1948, intrepid members of the Geography Club will venture on a "field trip" to Death Valley, and co-educational swimming classes are being inaugurated.

As an aid to students, new and old, the Golden Gater is printing the activities calendar in full. See Page 4.

'Beggar on Horseback' To Feature Big Cast

College Theatre's first production of the spring semester will be the comedy, "Beggar on Horseback." The show will feature the largest cast seen at State in many seasons. More than 50 members will appear, according to Clarence Miller, producer.

Jud Holstein, Betty Jane Wells, Lynda Hayden, Norman Barthold and Art Hedberg portrayed leading roles.

"Beggar on Horseback" plays February 27 and 28, March 5 and 6, at the Aptos Theatre. Curtain time is 8:15. The "K" street car takes you direct.

Publications Staff Meeting Slated For Tuesday Noon

Aspiring journalists interested in writing for college publications can sign up at a general staff meeting next Tuesday at 12:30 in the publications office, Hut 4.

The Golden Gater, college newspaper published every Friday of the semester by the Associated Students under the supervision of the Board of Publications, has positions open for business manager, copy editor, and staff photographer, in addition to feature and sports writers and regular news reporters. All students enrolled in journalism should attend the Tuesday meeting.

Other college publications include the Franciscan, college yearbook, published every June, and Inklings, State's magazine, published twice a semester. Editors of the various publications include Chuck Elkind, editor of the Golden Gater, and Pat Merrill, Franciscan editor. No editor or staff has been appointed to Inklings. Hy Bik is student director of publications.

Further information may be obtained in Hut 4.

Final Home Loop Series Set For Kezar

Final home conference basketball series of the season pits the "dark horse" Chico five against the Gators Friday and Saturday nights at Kezar Pavilion. Starting time for both tilts is 8 o'clock.

To date, the Golden Tide has racked up a .500 percentage, winning five and losing five. Three victories were registered over Humboldt; two over lowly Cal Aggies. Southern Oregon dropped the Tide four times, while Humboldt captured one from the locals.

The Gators travel to Davis next weekend to collide with Cal Aggies in a doubleheader and conclude their regular season the following weekend with a twin bill at Chico.

ORIENTATION

Freshmen Finish Today

Incoming freshmen are completing the last leg of their three-day orientation program today with the payment of entrance fees and official registration.

The Student Orientation Committee chairman, Mary Ellen Berry, started the Monday program with a mass meeting at the Baptist Church, followed by luncheon at the cafeteria, a rally at the Women's Gym and another two-hour session at the church.

The second day included morning and afternoon parleys at Baptist Church, lunch at the cafeteria and a dance in the Women's Gym.

Booklets containing the orientation training agenda and a list of campus student organizations, were given to all newcomers.

People interested in joining organizations may do so by addressing the presidents via the post office boxes located outside the library. Student body cards, prerequisite for membership in campus groups, are on sale during registration period.

V-Day Stumps Quiz Chumps

Uncle Nana, Golden Gater quiz expert, is swamped with questions. So he is passing on a few queries which might come in handy if anyone would like to play "quiz kids."

QUESTIONS

1. What is Saturday? (Hint: Not Ground Hogs' Day.)
2. Is Dean Valentine related to St. Valentine?
3. Who will play shortstop for the Memphis Chicks this season? (Hint: It isn't "Big Jim" Keating.)
4. Seeing as how this is Leap Year, who buys who the bon bons?

ANSWERS

1. St. Valentine's Day.
2. Nope.
3. Balthasar Wyatt of Soupbone, Arizona.
4. If you know what's good for you, Buddy, you'd better drum up a few bucks and trot down to the nearest confectionery parlor. Remember, "A valentine saves nine!"

Fisk on Round Table, Discusses Civil Rights

Alfred Fisk, professor of philosophy, participated last week in a session of the San Francisco Round Table of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He was a member of the discussion panel which reviewed President Truman's Commission on Civil Rights.

Outland Authors Policy For Democratic Unit

Ex-Congressman George Outland, professor of sociology at State, has authored a statement of policy which was accepted last week at the executive committee meeting of the Democratic State organization held in Oakland.

LEONARD:

'Persistence Key To College Success'

Welcome to the new students of February, 1948. Like the pioneers of a century ago, may you find gold! As prospectors you will have to labor and do a lot of digging, but I am sure that those who work their claims with good judgment and persistence will reap a rich reward. The officers and faculty of the college are ready to help you in your search. They are experienced and willing guides and they want you to succeed. But though they may lead you to the rich deposits in our hills, the real task is yours.

May you find gold!

J. PAUL LEONARD,
President of the College.

Guidance Center Ready For Action On Vet Problems

Students wishing vocational guidance and advice may make use of the facilities offered by the Vocational Guidance Center, Room 119, College Hall. The center offers a psychological processing program which, when completed, enables a student to better adjust his vocational pursuits to his individual aptitudes, according to John H. Cornehlsen Jr., faculty head of the center.

"Started over a year ago by the psychological department for the purpose of assisting veterans in their readjustment to civil life, the center now offers this same service to non-veteran students, as well," states Dean Cornehlsen. Non-veteran students are charged a $25 fee for guidance service, while Veterans' Administration pays the fee for veteran students. Complete processing is handled by the greatly expanded psychology department of the college.

Any student interested in services offered by the guidance center may see Dean Cornehlsen or Ruth Kadish, head interviewer.

Bills Pass House; Vets Await Truman Signature

Two bills benefiting veterans passed the House early last week, one going to the President for signature on a 370-6 vote. It would:

1. Raise the allowance for unmarried veterans in college from $65 a month to $75.

2. Pay a married student with one dependent $105 a month, and those with two or more dependents $120. Payment for all married students now is $90.

The other measure approved by the House would raise the amount a veteran taking on-the-job training can receive from his employer while getting Government subsistence allowances.

Braggiotti Brings Bach, Beethoven Before Body

Mario Braggiotti, international piano personality, performed during the orientation program yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Braggiotti offered selections from Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy, Gershwin and Stravinski.

Cowell Takes Leave

Olive Cowell, professor of International Relations, announced this week she will take a leave of absence during the spring semester to regain her health.

Corporation Weighs Deans' Committee Nine-Point Plan

The following nine-point plan for recognition of clubs or organizations on campus has been recommended to the Associated Students by the Deans' Committee. It is now under consideration by the former for adoption.

1. Each member should hold a student body card.

2. A minimum scholarship average of "C" for club officers.

3. An approved faculty sponsor who is recognized as a member of Executive Committee of the club.

4. An approved up-to-date constitution on file in the Office of the Dean of Women and with the Administrator of Student Affairs.

5. An open list of members on file in the Office of the Dean of Women and with the Administrator of Student Affairs.

6. A calendar of campus and off-campus activities approved by the Dean of Women at the opening of each semester.

7. Adherence to the 10-point program adopted by the Student Board of Directors to enable clubs to remain financially solvent.

8. No affiliation with a national organization which requires its chapter to support a specific position in controversial issues nor bars membership because of race, color, creed or political affiliation.

9. Membership in the club shall not be denied to any member of the Associated Student Body because of race, color, creed or political affiliation.

Everything Has the 'New Look' Now

Just to prove that women are not the only ones who can sport a "new look," the Golden Gater has adopted new, streamlined mastheads to replace the old English text type that for so long had graced its pages.

In addition (or is it subtraction?), column rules have been eliminated from the feature page. Object: to give the page "a new, distinctive appearance of its own."

Clock Threatens To Stop Grades

Julian B. Clock, supervising librarian, revealed that students' class grades will be withheld until the students' library records are cleared. She added that "overdue books have been too numerous this last semester, and unless students return books more promptly, the library privileges may be curtailed."

At present, the loan period on all books is one week, with privilege of renewal either in person or by phone. Fines will be charged from the day the book is due unless it is returned before a fine notice is sent. No book, at present, may be reneweed if overdue more than one day.

"Due to the increased demand for books by faculty and students, we are changing the present indefinite loan period to one month for the faculty, subject to renewal," Miss Clock concluded.

Initial Shindig of Term Billed For February 20

Initial social affair of the term, the "Welcome Dance," is slated for Friday, February 20, in Women's Gym. This annual shindig, sponsored by Phi Eta Chi, service fraternity, is formulated with the idea of bringing together both new and old students, according to Charles Gates, dance chairman.

Bob Wallace and his band tentatively have been billed to perform.

Internal Revenue Reverses Policy, Suspends Payments

Eligible For Refund; $1515.06 Claim Filed

Complete reversal of policy by the department of internal revenue last week exempted the Associated Students corporation from all income tax, social security and old age pension payments. This was revealed in a letter received by the corporation from E. L. McLarney, deputy commissioner of internal revenue.

According to McLarney's letter, "Income which is derived from student dues, activities and contributions and income from student store and cafeteria is expended for operating expenses." Therefore, "no part of the net income inures to the benefit of any member."

FACTS REVIEWED

McLarney then stated that "the facts in the case have been carefully reviewed, and it is the opinion of this office, based upon more recent interpretations of the statutes, that you are exempt from federal income tax."

Robert H. Fouke, legal representative for the student corporation, revealed that, due to this change in policy by the revenue department, "the Associated Students now is eligible for a refund of $1515.06, for which a claim already has been filed." In addition, under this new ruling, other refunds already paid as taxes by the Associated Students also can be claimed.

FIVE YEAR FIGHT

"Fight for this exemption actually began as early as 1943, when the Associated Students was reorganized as a charitable and philanthropic corporation," Fouke said. "At that time more than a year was devoted to drawing up a constitution which would include all the requirements for exemption as set down by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Only after adoption of such a charter could the Associated Students be eligible for such exemptions."

Fouke added that "the importance of this exemption is of tremendous significance to the students now attending State, as well as those who attend in the future. In addition to being free of any taxation requirements, the student corporation now is eligible to accept donations, philanthropic contributions, property gifts and inheritance gifts, completely free from internal revenue claims."

SHOULD IMPROVE COLLEGE

President Vin O'Leary stated that "with this new ruling in effect, we should be eligible to compete on even terms with other colleges and universities. These added funds and donations should do a great deal toward building up student loan reserves and establishing scholarship and student welfare funds."

Fouke concluded by stating that "the Associated Students will remain tax free only as long as the character of the corporation, the purpose for which it was organized and its manner of operation remains as it is. Any changes in the constitution and bylaws should be investigated carefully from every legal angle before they are adopted, as the change might affect the exemption status of the organization."

Cornehlsen Comments On Proposed Federal Aid

Federal aid of $1,875,000,000 for publicly supported colleges was recommended recently by President Truman's Commission on Higher Education.

John Cornehlsen, dean of men, commenting on the proposed aid, said, "Our problem is not to lower tuition fees, which are already nominal, but to make the college available to more students by aiding them with their living expenses.

IRC Schedules Student Interview

Ten members of the International Relations Club will interview students all next week to obtain individual votes on proposals for peace worked out at the World College Congress Meeting recently held at Stanford University.

Herbert Jacobi, State delegate to the conference, said, "Individual students will be picked at random and will be interviewed by our staff, with an aim to acquiring an affirmative vote."

The problems revolve around international relations between Russia and the United States. After being ratified by the required number of students, the propositions will be resubmitted to a national congress later in the semester.

PICK UP THE TORCH!

If the meek are to inherit the earth, then incoming freshmen have an equally diverse legacy. We feel that we can speak frankly to the newcomers as they certainly weren't lured to this institution by its drab contours.

Inasmuch as they are, therefore, members of the flock, we're confident that enumerating several worthwhile facts about their future at State won't sound like a sales talk.

There is a whole host of organizations awaiting, with open arms, shock troops. The inductees can expect cramped quarters, inadequate facilities and constant gripes, hanging cloud-like over the campus, as to when State will open shop on the new campus and where school spirit is.

These have resounded through State corridors like a battle cry for as long as any of us can remember. We hope we aren't being Leap Year giddy by predicting that the class of '52 will be the first cap and gown class turned out from the portals of the new campus.

If the incomers are unhappy with the unbecoming props for their duration on the Haight Street Hill, they can take heart from the curriculum being readied for them.

As a result of the Student Needs Tests, this program will be inaugurated in the fall for the frosh class. The program sets out to satisfy fundamental student needs.

The new curriculum will be geared to guide students through the vicissitudes of home and family problems that hinder the college work of the student. Misconceptions about earning power and job potentialities will be hashed out. Plugging up the weak spots in the freshman's 3 R's and instruction in evaluating the world they live in are the agenda for other main areas found lacking in the average college student's background.

Preceding classes, hampered by the war and difficulties of veteran civilian life adjustment, leave no burning torch of accomplishment for the class of '52 to blushingly pick up in some grand traditional manner.

Spirit for achievement at State is an elusive intangible, but it is here. There is no reason why new blood shouldn't root it out and revive it.

Student Body Cards Pay Off

Part of the routine of each new semester is the purchase of a student body card. This transaction with its accompanying growls and groans incurs the expenditure of $8 for a wallet-size piece of card board.

To some of us it means free admissions to school games, discounts on dance bids and even discounts on admissions at downtown theatres. To others it means a free Golden Gater every week. The socially inclined know they cannot belong to campus organizations without a card. Minus student body membership would-be hypochondriacs are unable to take advantage of free health center benefits and the list lengthens to include $24 worth of actual benefits derived by student body members.

The absence of Associated Students would mean no nonprofit Bookstore or Cafeteria, no football or basketball teams, no college paper, student lounge or any of the elemental facets of college life which we are inclined to take for granted. Thus, if representative student government and its appurtenances are to be maintained at State, a student body card is not merely a desirable factor. It is indeed a requisite to student well-being at State. —E. E.

Moving Bug Rampant Way Back in 1915, Marina District Was State's Objective

By JACK LAYCOX

Plans to move the college to other quarters have cropped up since 1915. In that year, Frederic Burk attempted to acquire property for a campus in the Marina District, on the site of the 1915 Panama Pacific Exposition. This failed when the district was subdivided into residential sites.

In the early 1920's another move was made to move the campus onto property near the vicinity of the present St. Francis Woods district. This was also unsuccessful, and finally the present Lake Merced location was acquired in 1930.

MOVED AFTER QUAKE

The San Francisco State Normal School, which had been located at Powell and Clay streets, first moved to its present location while the city was still recovering from the earthquake of 1906. The city had not reached its present proportions and the location of the campus was considered to be in a suburban area.

An abandoned Protestant chapel occupied the site of present College Hall. Where Anderson Hall now stands, a grey stone medieval styled building housed an orphanage. Orphaned children, nearly 300 of them, were the first students to attend the normal training school, which held classes in the renovated chapel. Buchanan Street was then only a foot trail, while Waller Street ran directly through.

COLLEGE HALL BUILT 1910

College Hall, the oldest building on the present campus, was completeed in 1910. It was built for the training of primary grade teachers and to accommodate 1000 youngsters. The library was the auditorium, the co-op housed the gym, the activities room was a children's library, and the first floor administrative offices were primary classrooms. The Normal School administrative offices were then accommodated in a row of "shacks" where Annex "A" now stands.

With the growth of San Francisco, and the need for greater educational facilities, real expansion began in the middle twenties.

The block north of Waller Street was acquired, and Anderson Hall, completed in 1928, replaced the old orphanage building. In this period, the women's gym also was constructed, and Waller Street was blocked off, giving the campus its six acre proportions. This was the period that the normal school became a state teachers college, authorized to grant the Bachelor of Arts degree.

ANNEX CONSTRUCTED

The college administrative offices had gradually moved to College Hall, and the first annex buildings were constructed as temporary classrooms. Except for several changes due to accidental fires, these quaint "temporary" wooden structures have remained unaltered.

In 1928, Dr. Alexander Roberts, who succeeded Dr. Burk as president of the college, laid the cornerstone for the training school which stands as a memorial to Dr. Burk. The building was opened in 1930 as one of the finest primary teachers' training laboratories in the West.

Know Your Way? Here's Directions

For newcomers who are baffled by directions, here is a workable index to locate on- and off-campus class rooms. Baptist Church and annex is one block from campus at Waller and Octavia Streets. The Salvation Army is on the south side of Market at 115 Valencia Street. It is two blocks from campus. Emanu-El Residence Club is one block from campus at Page and Laguna Streets.

Siena Club House, 350 Buchanan Street, offers accommodations for about 24 college women. Single men are housed at a co-operative house, "The Rock," 2255 Mariposa Street. It is accessible by street car line.

Classes held at the new campus are accessible by a bus system to and from Merced. The bus picks up passengers at the foot of the Hermann Street hill.

On campus, Annex A is the group of shacks that courses parallel to Buchanan Street. Annex B is the cluster of shacks on the level below Upper Field.

Confusion can be avoided on class room numbers by remembering that AA refers to Annex A ,AB to Annex B and A to Anderson Hall.

Huts 1 and 2 are found on the lawn between Anderson Hall and Women's Gym.

JEST A MOMENT...

The Walking Adverb

("Jest a Moment," a new column written on the blithe side, will appear on this page weekly. This will not be a gossip column loaded with personalitiy fillers. "Jest a Moment" will include items in the satirical vein by guest writers. Material will emanate from the world in general and State College in particular.)

Entrance tests must be a rough ordeal now that enrollment is limited. Word sieved out that after stringently "boning up" for the English exam, one freshman cracked. He made the grade but he's been wandering around campus convinced that he's an adverb and that he must fulfill his duty of modifying adjectives, verbs and other adverbs!

Might add that the results of a penmanship exam of some semesters back included the then student body secretary who fumbled the test and ended far down in the "also ran" list.

* * *

In a benevolent mood, an upper classman was steering a foreign student around campus and orientating him to some American folkways. After they had made the rounds they were leaning on the balcony railing outside the gym. The alien asked, "See if I have learned correctly. The basketball looks like a stuffed turban and the object like a pipeline is a baseball bat?"

* * *

In the Alley a compact cluster of musickers were panning an obnoxious character. One of the annoyed suggested that the gee should take a swan dive off Golden Gate Bridge. Since 89 had already done so, this guy could make it an even 90. John Schuster countered, "He's too square to make it a round number!"

* * *

A past student body president made an appearance and after a little coaxing he confirmed the story about his class commencement ceremony. Seems he was sweating out his valedictory speech when he discovered that his neighbor was in similar straits. Each came out of the affair in tip top shape. The pres received a warming round of applause and the girl had an eight-pound tyke. —C. E.

Championship Hopes Fade For Golden Tide Quintet; Buchanan Street Boys Capture Six Games, Drop Five

KEZAR PAVILION, Feb. 7.—Leading from start to finish, the Gators pulled the rug out from under the Humboldt State Lumberjacks for the second night in a row, 61-57, tonight.

Paced by Dick Jaensch and Jack Byrne in the first half and by Ed Rathjen in the second stanza, S. F. held a comfortable margin throughout most of the tilt. When Jaensch and Bill Callas fouled out with a few minutes to go, Humboldt put on a drive that brought them up to 59-56 with a minute to go. Then Rathjen made a sensational lay-in shot over his shoulder as he slipped and hit the deck to ice the game for the Gators.

Jaensch was high man with 18.

GATORS MAUL HUMBOLDT

On Friday, in a game that saw 45 fouls committed by the two teams, State ran away from the Woodsmen, 63-49.

Jaensch, Rathjen and Callas set the pace in the first frame, while Byrne and Rathjen kept things going in the second half. The tilt got so rough late in the first period that Rathjen had to prevent Jaensch from landing on a Lumberjack snoot. Jaensch was high point with 17, followed by Rathjen with 16. Out of both Humboldt games was "Jumping John" Burton, who was on his honeymoon.

The Gators didn't fare so well in the Far Western Conference competition as they had expected. Previous to the Humboldt wins State:

BURTON HURTS LEG

1. Dropped a pair to Southern Oregon at Kezar, 60-48 and 61-50. Despite Burton's 19 points in the first encounter, S. F. saw the spirited Red Raiders pull slowly out in front in the second half. Before the Gators realized it, the game had gone down the drain.

In the second game the Buchanan Street Boys surged way out in front in the first period to lead 31-20 at the halftime. Then Burton came up with a terrific Charlie Horse which prevented him from making any jump shots. When Callas and "Dirty" Byrne were waved out on fouls, the Oregonians quietly pulled State to pieces.

2. The Gators registered their greatest victory of the season on Jan. 21 when they defeated San Jose State (who had previously thumped State), 61-56, at Kezar. After a 28-25 halftime deficit the Gators led by Burton and Byrne scored 15 points to the Spartans' two in the first eight minutes of the second stanza. S. F. proceeded to coast in.

3. Loafed to a pair of wins over the inexperienced Cal Aggies, 56-50 and 68-58, at Kezar. In the first game "Jumping John" rang the gong for 19, and in the second tussle Byrne went wild with 18. The green Aggies, who just didn't have the goods, moaned their way into four technicals in the second encounter.

TRIP PROVES FATAL

4. Drew a heartbreaking split with Humboldt, 46-49 and 61-43, in the first lap of their Northern trip. Leading by nine points with three minutes to go, the Gators saw a series of desperation long shots somehow find their way through the mesh and suddenly it was all over with the Woodsmen on top. State played without Byrne (nicked by a cold), who had been hitting the hoop with such consistency.

In the second battle S. F. went to town with Burton leading the way with 17. Humboldt never saw the light of day in this one.

JAENSCH SCORES 22

5. Watched their FWC championship hopes fade away as So. Oregon tipped them twice, 49-45 and 59-41, at Ashland, Ore. The Gators led almost all the way in the first one, but when "Battling Bill" Callas and "Influence" Jaensch were waved out on fouls, the Red Raiders overtook the city boys in a final surge. Rathjen plunked in 15 to be S. F. high-pointer.

Playing their fourth game in five days, the weary Gators stood and took it on the chin from the powerful Oregonians in the second encounter. Jaensch made a one-man effort to keep State in the game with 22 points (his highest one-game effort at State).

Athletes to Defend Conference Crowns

Tracksters Start Spring Training

By RAOUL SOSA, Jr.

Getting in trim to defend their championship laurels, the State thinclads have been conditioning themselves for the past several weeks out in the Merced campus and on upper field.

All men interested in track should sign up in the gym any afternoon. Equipment will be issued at time of signing.

This season State will have a Jayvee track team under Coach Bill Harkness. The Jayvee squad will give inexperienced men a chance to develop and will provide an opportunity for more men to participate in track events.

Strong in the distance runs but somewhat weak in the field events, Coach Ray Kaufman's charges are considered a good bet to repeat last year's feat of copping the Far Western Conference title.

OAKES RETURNS

The return of Don Oakes and Jack Byrne, who ran one-two in the mile and half-mile in the conference meet last year, assures State of many points, while the presence of Hal Fox in the sprints is representative of more digits.

Oakes, incidentally, was the only double winner in last year's conference tourney. In a meet against Nevada last year, Fox ran like a real "gazelle boy," stopping the timepiece at the amazing mark of 9.5.

Returning to the two-mile twirl, Hank Watty and John Holden are expected to command the event. In the mile run, Bill Brennan will crack the cinders.

Three-quarters of last year's record breaking relay team return to the cinders. Fox, Don Meagher and Earl Boles are the returning trio.

BOLES PROMISING

Offsetting the loss of Shepherd, however, quarter-miler Earl Boles may come through. Earl has shown promise in his first outings with the barriers.

Besides the quarter-mile, Boles does his stint in the sprints and tosses the javelin for good measure. He is the Tide's most versatile athlete.

Gator Nine Opens Practice Sessions

By GORDON RADDUE

Eight lettermen will greet baseball coach Hal Harden as the Gator nine opens preparations for defense of its Far Western Conference title.

The big question mark is the pitching staff. If the loss of ace hurlers Jim Pollard and Jim Keating can be compensated for, the Gators can field a team right up to last year's standards. Irv Edstrom, who turned in some fine mound performances last season, heads this season's crop of flingers, with Sebastian Rubio and southpaw John Pasanen added hopes. Catching duties are in the hands of veteran Gus Buono.

INFIELD WELL KNIT

The infield situation looks bright with first stringers Pete Cuddyre and Herb Bill returning at first and second base, respectively, Tom Gaffney at third, and Mike Keropian and Ray Enjaian tussling for the key shortstop berth.

Experienced hands also grace the outfield with Mike Marcoulis, last season's center fielder, Tony Matulich and Frank Isola ready for another campaign. Cage star Ed Rathjen may be an added starter on the list of outfield candidates. A welcome newcomer in the outfield is Bob Keropian, Mike's kid brother, who is doubling up this term in baseball and track.

PREPSTER TRIES OUT

Bob's combined speed and .400 hitting won him all-city laurels at George Washington High School, where he cavorted in center field.

The Gators open competition February 27 with St. Mary's as their opponent. Among other pre-conference warmups, State will test its mettle March 4 against California's NCAA champion Bears.

Eight Tournaments Planned as Harkness Expands Intramurals

State's intramural program will get off to a fast start this spring with eight tournaments planned for the semester, intramural director Bill Harkness announced last week. Some 20 groups are expected to participate in the stepped-up program. All those interested should sign up in the men's gym.

Intramurals will open with a speedball tourney during the first six weeks of the term. A two-week volleyball meet will follow the speedball play. Tennis competition will run the first nine weeks of the semester.

BADMINTON PLANNED

Badminton play will run during the tenth to eighteenth weeks. Softball also will take the spotlight from the twelfth to seventeenth weeks.

On the 'mural agenda are the intramural cross-country meet, the interclass track match, a ping pong tournament and women's tennis competition. Dates have not been assigned to those four activities.

RIBBONS AWARDED

All students who are on winning teams or are individual winners will be awarded inscribed ribbons.

Most of State's organizations are expected to enter this year's 'murals. Sigma Pi Sigma, Agatheans, Newman Club, Alpha Phi Gamma, Block S, Music Fed and the Golden Gater will be entered in intramural play. Strong contingents also are expected from various independent groups who have rated high in past 'mural activity. These include: Mather Maulers, Old Men's Athletic Club, Daredevils, Hamburgers, Cherries, Stumblers, Walmuts, Misfits, Fearless Five, Beerloaders, Rover Boys, Dolphins and Redhots.

Coach Harkness emphasized the fact that some groups may want to sponsor teams under the organization's name without having all the team members belong to that group.

P E 99 DIRECTS PLAY

Intramural competition will be directed by members of the PE 99 class under the supervision of Harkness. All games will be officiateed by Phi Epsilon Mu, PE fraternity. Men who have made their block in a sport cannot participate in play in that particular sport, but are eligible for other intramural activities.

An all-star basketball game will be played soon. The 'mural all-star squads are being selected now.

State Basketball Crowds Are Poor

A FEW WEEKS ago the Gator basketball squad beat San Jose State at Kezar Pavilion in what one reporter termed "The biggest upset of the week" before a terrific crowd of 150 persons — most of them from S. J. . . . S. W. MORSE, State's faculty rep to the Far Western Conference, writes to us saying that SFSC's meager attendance figures are "a pitiful exhibition" . . . amen!

WE CERTAINLY HOPE the Humboldt State Alumni succeed in their attempt to oust their football coach. . . . Humboldt humbled SF's gridders, 19-0, last season.

Guard JACK BYRNE, the left tweeze of the "KEZAR TWEEZERS," is number one in the fouls dept. . . . DICK JAENSCH has tagged JACK as "DIRTY BYRNE" —what he needs is some disinfectant.

GYMINY CRICKETS: Where's the men's gym? (This is special dope for newcums.) Well, start at the front door of College Hall as you go in. Turn and go down stairs and out door. Turn to right. Walk down until you come to sunlight again—you are now in Music Alley. Turn left and walk 40 paces—turn right—turn right and go down rickety stairs—turn left and walk along edge of field. Dodge eight-year-olds coming out at recess. Turn right and walk along fence until you come to gate—turn left at gate and go through arch. Then turn right through door and go down stairs and you're there. (If you end up in a Frederic Burk 4th grade, then start over.)

WHEN YOUR REPORTER went into State's locker room to look for his fountain pen he'd left there, RAY ENJAIAN cracked: "You'll never find it—the JV's were just in here . . . PS: It's still among the missing.

THE COW PALACE sent us a blurb on Cal's refusal to play conference games there . . . and there are some State rooters who would give their collective eye teeth to see the dear old Gators play in the Moo Hall.

IF THE ATHLETIC Dept. is really interested in getting larger crowds out to SFSC's athletic contests, they might publicize the fact that all Block S members, past or present, are eligible for "Annie Oakleys" to all State sport events.

COACH DICK BOYLE attention: The Mission Adult Hi School is offering a course in football scouting . . . 'nuff said?

OUR CONGRATS TO "JUMPING JOHN" BURTON, who took that fatal jump last Wednesday. He joins BOB CALLAN in the select "married basketeers club."

Keating's Men Win Twenty-third Tilt

The State Jayvees copped their 23rd win of the season last Saturday night at Kezar when they ran away from the Ramblers A. C., 74-38.

The Baby Gators have dropped 11 tilts this year, one of these to the Ramblers. Since the end of last semester the Jayvees have conquered the Atom A. C., Half Moon Bay High, Lowell High, Poly High, Roberto's of Richmond, Booker T. Washington, Tamalpais High and the aforementioned Ramblers.

In the Jayvee scoring department Irv Edstrom and Pete Desalernos are fighting it out for top honors with Bob Keropian closing in very fast on both of them. All three men are nearing the 200 mark. Others who have passed the century spot in scoring are Pat Murphy, 130; Chuck Ratcliffe, 115; Ray Enjaian, 109; Gus Skoufas and Earl Homan, 100 each.

Keropian's sudden burst has enabled the Baby Gators to run away from most of their opponents in recent games. Big Gus Skoufas and Chuck Ratcliffe have proved invaluable with their rebounding skill and defensive tactics. Jayvee Coach Jim Keating reports, "Without these two factors victories would have been few and far between."

The Jayvees have averaged 46.2 points per game while holding their opponents to a 40.2 average.

One-Unit PE Course Given In Intramural Leadership

A course in intramural leadership, PE 99, is offered this semester. This one-unit course may fill in an extra unit for PE or recreations majors. It meets Monday at 12 and will direct State's intramural program.

Instructor Bill Harkness announced that the course may be taken more than once for credit.

Student Governing Board Holds Political Limelight

The student political scene at State is centered in the operations of the student body Board of Directors. This board is comprised of a president, vice-president, activities commissioner, treasurer, secretary, seven members-at-large, three faculty members, and the Administrator of Student Affairs, who has no voting privileges.

Business of the board is conducted at open meetings each Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the Activities Room, College Hall. The board is delegated to collect student body funds and subsidize its own enterprises, such as the bookstore, cafeteria, athletic teams and the Golden Gater. It also schedules relief drives, institutes new policies and maintains liaison with other California colleges.

In addition to the Board of Directors there are four subsidiary groups handling specific student body affairs.

The Board of Control, headed by the treasurer, copes with financial matters. The Welfare Board, under the chairmanship of the vice-president, has been designated as the co-ordinating council of student welfare and activities.

Rallies, dances and allied recreations are co-ordinated by the Activities Commissioner. Management and operational problems of student body enterprises are met by the Store Council, headed by the secretary.

Student Body officers this semester are: Vin O'Leary, president; Audrey Scontriano, vice-president; Ken Pasqualetti, activities commissioner; John Shepherd, treasurer; Dorothy Quinn, secretary; June Christiansen, Phil Ryan, Henry Amerson, Barbara Tehaney, George Allen, Al Gabriel, members-at-large.

It's Another Headline Record!
Louis Prima's "With a Hey and a Hi and a Ho Ho Ho" (RCA Victor)
THE MAN who plays pretty for the people, Louis Prima, has a groovy new record!
A trumpet player of long experience, Louis knows when he's hit the right note in smoking pleasure too. He's a dyed-in-the-wool Camel fan. "Camels are the 'choice of experience' with me," says Prima.
Try Camels! Let your own experience tell you why, with smokers who have tried and compared, Camels are the "choice of experience."

And here's another great record—
More people are smoking CAMELS than ever before!
